

7 priests ordained at the roofless Palo cathedral

Neither the onslaught of super typhoon Yolanda nor the roofless cathedral dampened the jubilation of the archdiocese of Palo that celebrated the ordination of seven new priests on November 25 in the presence of the christian community whose faith in the crucified Lord proved to be even stronger with archbishop John Du at the helms of the Shepherd's crosier.

(CBCP News, 11/26/2013)